Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1, 5, 7, 8, 12 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by U. S. Patent No. 7,162,635 to Bisbee et al.

As per claims 1 and 8, Bisbee et al. disclose contacting a server, receiving a response ....., interpreting information ..... and invoking a level of functionality (col. 11, lines 21-38).

As per claims 5 and 12, Bisbee et al. disclose the token is a digital certificate .....(col. 18, lines 33-47).

As per claims 7 and 14, Bisbee et al. disclose this feature (col. 12, lines 10-17).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-4, 6, 9-11 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bisbee et al. as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of the examiner taking official notice.

As per claims 2-4 and 9-11, Bisbee et al. do not specifically disclose the limitations of these claims. The examiner, however, takes official notice that these elements are well known in the art of security systems. It would have been obvious to anyone having an ordinary level of skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have included these features in the invention of Bisbee et al. since they comprise very well known elements necessary for the entire system to function in a secure and controlled environment.

As per claims 6 and 13, Bisbee et al. do not disclose these features. The examiner, however, further takes official notice that these elements are well known in the art of security systems for the same reasons as stated above.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
